1. Policy Context

Wyndham Community and Education Centre Incorporated is a not-for-profit association established in 1974 and governed by a Board of Governance, comprised of elected community members and stakeholders.

Wyndham Community and Education Centre Incorporated offers a range of community and education programs and services to members of the local Wyndham community and surrounds. Many of these programs and services are government funded: Local, State and Commonwealth Governments.

2. Policy

Wyndham CEC recognises the importance of protecting the privacy and the rights of individuals in relation to their personal information.

This policy supports Wyndham CEC's need to collect information and the right of the individual to privacy.

It ensures that Wyndham CEC can collect information necessary for its programs, services and functions, while recognising the right of individuals to have their information handled in ways that they would reasonably expect and in ways that protect their personal and health information.

This document outlines Wyndham CEC's privacy policy for students and clients and informs them how Wyndham CEC collects, uses, discloses and manages personal and health information in accordance with Victorian and Commonwealth legislation.

This includes information collected, used, disclosed and managed under the Privacy and Data Protection Act (Vic), the Health Records Act 2001 (Vic), and the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth).

All Wyndham CEC staff and volunteers will be inducted into the use of this policy and procedure and must act in accordance with this policy, and in accordance with the legislation, whilst performing tasks on behalf of Wyndham CEC that include the collection of personal or health information for the purpose of enrolment or application for a program and service.

3. Privacy Legislation and Wyndham CEC

The Privacy Act 1988 (Cth) defines personal information as: information or an opinion, whether true or not, and whether recorded in a material form or not, about an identified individual, or an individual who is reasonably identifiable.

Information collected can be classified as personal, sensitive or health information.

Common examples of personal information include an individual's name, signature, address, telephone number, date of birth, financial information if necessary to confirm eligibility for a service.

Examples of personal information that is also sensitive information includes racial and ethnic origin, political or religious beliefs, sexual orientation and criminal records.

Health information examples include health related matters that Wyndham CEC collects in order to ensure an individual's safety and well-being while attending a service at Wyndham CEC for example, anaphylaxis, asthma, epilepsy.

The Privacy Act includes thirteen Australian Privacy Principles (APPs), which outline best practice requirements when it comes to privacy. Wyndham CEC's obligations under privacy vary according to the type of information collected. The types of personal information collected depends on the type of program or service being provided to an individual.

Wyndham CEC respects student/ client rights to privacy under the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth) and complies with the Act's requirements in respect of the collection, use, disclosure and management of personal information.

Victorian privacy law applies to staff, contractors, volunteers employed or engaged by Wyndham CEC and covers student and client records and information held by Wyndham CEC about a student or client.

Legislation in Victoria protects the privacy of an individual's personal information and sets a standard for the protection of the privacy of personal information by the Victorian public sector. This includes rules about the way organisations handle personal or health information, including sensitive information.

Rules include:

- only using information for the purposes it was collected
- keeping information safe and secure
- only showing information to people who need to see it
- disposing of information securely when it is no longer needed
- maintaining integrity of information

- providing individuals with access to their own information on request. An individual's right to access remains via a request made under freedom of information Act 1982 (Cth). Wyndham CEC can, depending on circumstances, provide a student/ client with informal access to their own information (see 4.12)

Contacting Us

Wyndham CEC has a nominated Privacy Officer to manage and review Wyndham CEC's privacy practices. For all privacy related enquiries, please contact the Privacy Officer:

Fiona Bolton

4. Privacy and Wyndham CEC's Students/ clients

Wyndham CEC will provide students/clients with a privacy notice informing them about the ways their personal information will be collected, used, disclosed and managed when they enrol in training or apply to access a service of Wyndham CEC.

The privacy notice is incorporated into the student enrolment form for students enrolling or re-enrolling in an education or training course.

The Victorian Government, through the Department of Education & Training, develops, monitors and funds vocational education & training (VET) in Victoria and pre-accredited training programs. Any personal information collected by the Victorian Government for training purposes in Victorian funded programs is protected in accordance with the Privacy and Data Protection Act 2014 (Vic) and the Health Records Act 2001 (Vic). Personal information collected can include information deemed sensitive and/or related to health information. Wyndham CEC seeks consent to collect, use, disclose and manage an individual's personal and health information, including necessary sensitive information through a signed privacy notice.

All students enrolling in a training course or clients accessing a service for which information must be collected, will be given a copy of the Privacy and your Rights tri-fold containing the Victorian IPPs and a copy of the Australian APPs.

Enrolling students will be provided with a Privacy Notice at enrolment. Wyndham CEC seeks agreement with the Privacy Statement through signed acknowledgement when they sign the enrolment form.

Wyndham Community and Education Centre Inc.

Policy and Procedure

As part of the enrolment interview process, staff will provide reasons at the time and point of collection, regarding what information is being collected and held, and how the information will be used or disclosed.

All students will be informed of their right to access information held about them and the process for doing so at the enrolment interview (see section 4.12 below).

If a student/client does not wish to provide information they have the right to refuse, however, this may restrict the activities they can participate in and Wyndham CEC may not be able to offer them the service they seek. A refusal must be recorded in a way appropriate to the situation e.g. a refusal to answer a question on an enrolment form would be recorded using the @ symbol (see section 4.7 below).

4.1 Collection of data

Wyndham CEC is required to provide the Victorian Department of Education and Training with student data and training activity data. This includes the personal information collected via the Wyndham CEC enrolment form such as unique identifiers: the Victorian Student Number (VSN); and, the Commonwealth's Unique Student Identifier (USI).

Wyndham CEC provides data to the Department in accordance with the Victorian VET Student Statistical Collection Guidelines, available at: <http://www.education.vic.gov.au/training/providers/rto/Pages/datacollection.aspx> Data reported by Wyndham CEC may also be forwarded to federal government agencies, such as NCVER, under the terms of the National VET Data Policy, available at: <https://www.education.gov.au/national-vet-data-policy-0>

4.2 Use of data - students

The Victorian Department and NCVER use student and training data, including personal information, for a range of VET purposes including administration, monitoring and planning.

A student's USI may be used for specific VET purposes including the verification of student data provided by Wyndham CEC; the administration and audit of VET providers and programs; education-related policy and research purposes; and to assist in determining eligibility for training subsidies.

Wyndham CEC will provide students with relevant information about privacy at enrolment or at any other time via an appointment with a relevant staff member.

Victorian legislation allows anyone to make a privacy complaint in the event that a belief is formed that privacy rules have been breached. This can be done through the Office of the Commissioner for Privacy and Data Protection - <http://www.dataprotection.vic.gov.au/>

4.12 How can students/ clients access and correct personal information?

Students/ clients may request access to any personal information we hold about you at any time by contacting us. Where we hold information that you are entitled to access, collected directly by Wyndham CEC, we will try to provide you with a suitable means of accessing it (for example, by mailing or emailing it to you). Wyndham CEC does not charge a fee to cover our costs of locating the information and providing it to you.

Wyndham CEC will take all reasonable steps to correct any personal information as long as we are satisfied that it is inaccurate, out of date, incomplete, irrelevant or misleading. If we have provided your information to third parties we will also notify them of any correction to information on condition you provide permission to do so, unless it is impracticable or unlawful to do so.

Requests for access to, or correction of personal information should be made in writing by email or mail and addressed to the Privacy Officer as indicated on page 3.

Requests will be answered within 30 days.

Wyndham Community and Education Centre Inc. Policy and Procedure

There may be instances where we cannot grant you access to the personal information we hold or we may not agree with your request to access and correct the information. For example, we may need to refuse access if granting access would interfere with the privacy of others or if it would result in a breach of confidentiality. If that happens, we will give you written reasons for any refusal and provide information about avenues for complaint.

4.13 Other information we may collect

During the enrolment process personal information is collected. This information may be used for the following purposes unless you have chosen to opt-out:

- Creation of a computer logon account
- Creation of an email address
- Creation of a web storage account
- Creation of an e-Learning logon account
- Wyndham CEC direct marketing

Some of these accounts may reside on international servers. As such, we may need to disclose your personal information at account creation. Wyndham CEC checks the privacy policy and server security of any organisation for which the above mentioned accounts may be created, ensuring your privacy rights are maintained in accordance with the Australian Privacy Principles (APPs).

At time of enrolment you will be given the option to opt-out of any of the above services by making a selection on Wyndham CEC's Enrolment Form. You may ask to be removed from Wyndham CEC's direct marketing lists by contacting Wyndham CEC's Privacy Officer as detailed on page 2 of this Policy & Procedure.

4.14 Privacy exemptions

Personal and health information can be disclosed for a purpose other than which it was collected and without the person's consent when the disclosure is:

- Necessary to prevent a threat to life, health or safety
- Required, authorised or permitted by law or for law enforcement purposes
- Used for research or compilation of statistics in the public interest, in certain limited circumstances
- When complying with duty of care purposes and processes

sent in various forms, including mail, SMS, fax, email, in accordance with applicable marketing laws, such as the Spam Act 2003 (Cth). If you indicate a preference for a method of communication, we will endeavour to use that method whenever practical to do so.

In addition, at any time you may opt-out of receiving marketing communications from us by contacting us or by using opt-out facilities provided in the marketing communications and we will then ensure that your name is removed from our mailing list.

Contact details are on page 3 of this policy and procedure.

We do not provide personal information to other organisations for the purposes of direct marketing.

6. What is the process for complaining about a breach of privacy?

If you believe that your privacy has been breached, please contact us using the contact information on page 3 and provide details of the incident so that we can investigate it.

We will respond to you within 30 days.

7. Do we disclose personal information to anyone outside of Australia?

As indicated in section 4.10 of this policy, some personal information may reside on international servers, usually located in the United States of America. This usually includes storage of student or staff work on platforms such as Moodle or Google Docs or for creating a student log in. As such, we may need to disclose personal information at account creation. Wyndham CEC checks the privacy policy and server security of any organisation for which the above mentioned accounts may be created, ensuring privacy rights are maintained in accordance with the Australian Privacy Principles (APPs).

At time of enrolment you will be given the option to opt-out of any of the above services by making a selection on Wyndham CEC's Enrolment Form. You may ask to be removed from Wyndham CEC's direct marketing lists by contacting Wyndham CEC's Privacy Officer as detailed in section 3 of this Policy & Procedure.

8. Information retention and disposal

Wyndham CEC stores personal information in either electronic (soft copy) or paper (hard copy) form.

Information collected for the purposes of enrolment in education and training programs and services is held in our student management system, VETtrak (pre-2016) or aXcelerate (post-2016).

Policy and Procedure

Wyndham CEC also maintains some databases for the following purposes:

- a Medical Register of students who require duty of care especially those under-18
- a Qualifications Register
- a Legal Register for students under-18 with custody or other legal orders
- reporting other data to government departments

Back-up copies of all electronic files held in Wyndham CEC's systems are kept in the event of an IT system failure or loss.

Wyndham CEC retains personal information for as long as it is required for its business activities and functions, and for as long as it is legally required to retain the information.

When personal information is no longer needed by Wyndham CEC, and it is lawful to do so, Wyndham CEC destroys or takes reasonable steps to de-identify information.

9. Security

Wyndham CEC will take reasonable steps to ensure that personal information is protected from misuse and loss, and from unauthorised access or interference, modification or disclosure.

Wyndham CEC's policies, systems and networks are in place to comply with the law and to manage risk. This includes protection from unauthorised access. Access to databases and management systems are protected through user log-in & password and, assignment of user access rights (see section 4.9).

Security steps includes:

- Wyndham CEC's premises and server room are fully secured
- Website protection measures such as firewalls, encryption and anti-virus software in place
- Access restrictions to computer systems such as log in and password protection
- Work stations lock when left unattended
- Hard copy files and documents are locked in secured filing cabinets and locked rooms
- Documents no longer required are shredded in locked bins and destroyed by an appropriately certified contractor
- Restricted access to senior management offices
- Staff training and PD around student/ client privacy

Website security

guarantee the security of information you disclose online. We also cannot guarantee that the information you supply will not be intercepted while being transmitted over the Internet. Accordingly, any personal information or other information which you transmit to us online is transmitted at your own risk.

If you are concerned, you can contact us via the contact details on page 3. You can also help by notifying us if you become aware of a security breach.

10. Links/ third party websites

Our website may contain links to other websites operated by third parties. We make no representation or warranties in relation to the practises of any third party website and we are not responsible for the privacy policies or the content of any third party website. Third party websites are responsible for informing you about their own privacy practises.

11. Responding to a privacy breach

While Wyndham CEC takes all reasonable steps to avoid privacy breaches, sometimes things can inadvertently go wrong. In such an event, Wyndham CEC will respond by following the steps in the Data Breach Response Policy & Procedure. This includes taking immediate steps to prevent the risk of serious harm to the individual and notifying the relevant individual(s) affected.

12. Contacting us/ Complaints

If you have any questions about this privacy policy, any concerns or a complaint regarding the treatment of privacy or a possible breach of privacy, please use the contact link on our website or contact our Privacy Officer using the details set out above on page 3.

We will treat requests or complaints confidentially. Our staff will contact you after receipt of a complaint to discuss concerns and outline options regarding how they may be resolved. We aim to ensure complaints are resolved appropriately and within 30 days.

If you are not happy with Wyndham CEC's response you can refer a complaint to the Office of the Australian Information Commissioner (OAIC) <https://www.oaic.gov.au/>

13. Changes to Wyndham CEC's Privacy Policy

Wyndham CEC may change this privacy policy from time to time. Any updated versions of this privacy policy will be posted on Wyndham CEC's website. Unless required, this Policy and Procedure will be reviewed annually.
